OUR FREE TRADE CLUB.

An Enthusiastic Meeting in the Court House-The Organization Perfected. In pursuance of a call recently published for a meeting of the citizens of Winnsboro in the Court House, for the purpose of organizing a Free Trade Club on Tuesday night. A large and enthusiastic audience met for this purpose. During the day, several men canvassed the town and secured the names of about ashundred gentlemen, who signified their willingness to become members of the Club, and to their influence in promoting the cause of Free Frade. Hon. H. A. Gaillard was called to the chair, and in a few words stated the object of the meeting, which was to organize the Club and elect delegates to the Convention of Free Traders, which will be held in Columbia on the 9th December. Mr. J. E. McDonald was chosen temporary secretary. Besides the names already procured, a number of others were added to the roll, among the number the life-long colored Democrat, Willis Goode.
